

I am totally against the recall of the no call list or changes in the current language to weaken the program as it stands.